About Khula's Cottage

Khula's Cottage is an eco-friendly self-catering cottage built in a truly unique and extraordinary location within the perimeter of The Hoedspruit Endangered Species Centre.

The cottage offers an exclusive and private setting to observe the life of HESC's cheetahs, and is the perfect base from which to explore the scenic wonders of the lowveld, including (but not limited to) God's Window, Bourke's Luck Potholes, and Pilgrim's Rest.

Basic electricity is provided via solar panels, and limited mobile phone coverage facilitates a true African getaway from the hustle and bustle of city living.

Set within its own enclosed and protected area, Khula's Cottage offers a private and personal experience. This is the ideal experience for self-drive clients who do not wish to compromise on comfort, but are looking for an authentic bush experience with great value for money.

The cottage comprises of three en-suite bedrooms and is perfect for larger families, or for friends traveling together. The cottage consists of two twin rooms (each with an additional day bed) and one double room. An expansive wooden deck boasts spectacular views of the surrounding wilds. Amenities include towels, linen, cutlery, tea & coffee making facilities and cooking utensils.

The cottage offers a gas fridge and stove. As a self-catered unit, clients determine their own meal times and preferences. The outdoor boma is THE spot for a magnificent meal underneath the stars. Breakfast and lunch is also served daily at The Deli, based within the HESC. Visitors who are travelling from afar may also send their grocery list through in advance, and the HESC team will acquire the items on their behalf.

Clients staying at Khula's Cottage will have a dedicated ranger on hand should they require any assistance.
